

The delightful days of the past week have been enjoyed to the fullest. Society has driven, wheeled, picnicked and sported itself gaily at home and at the various resorts that are so numerous and so accessible to the city. The country club is like a small village and fun alive to be found there daily. The Fourth found it crowded with members, all taking a keen interest in the sports of the afternoon. The warm weather brought out many beautiful summer gowns and the gauds presented a beautiful and animated appearance throughout the day.

Complimentary to Mrs. George Tuttle.
Mrs. William Gibson Sharp entertained at luncheon Tuesday afternoon, complimentary to Mrs. George Tuttle of St. Louis. The decorations were carried out in yellow and white and were most artistically arranged. Those who enjoyed the tempting menu were Mrs. Tuttle, Mrs. John A. Marshall, Mrs. Tuohy, Mrs. R. C. Woodruff, Miss Kimball, Miss Calhoun, Mrs. David Murray, Miss Harless, Miss Harkness.

Delightful Affairs.
The principal events of the past week have been given in honor of Miss Rose Goldberg and Edward Silberstein of Denver, whose marriage takes place tomorrow evening. The first affair was a trolley party given Monday evening by the bride's sister, Mrs. Louis Simon. The guests passed the early hours of the evening riding around the city in a beautifully illuminated car and after visiting the different points of interest they were taken to the home of the hostess where a delicious supper was served.

On Friday afternoon the young couple were the guests of honor at an elaborate luncheon given by Mrs. Shelley Tuttle. The table was exquisitely arranged with silver and cut glass and was adorned with masses of sweet peas and maiden hair fern. Around it were seated Miss Goldberg, Mr. Silberstein, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Simon, Mrs. Fred Simon, Miss Moore of Denver, Miss Rilla Simon, Mr. Adolph Simon, Mrs. W. H. Harrison of Butte, Mrs. Goldberg and Miss Fuschgott.

Last evening the members of the bridal party went out to Saltair where they were entertained at supper by Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Kahn. Those present were Miss Goldberg, Mr. Silberstein, Miss Moore of Denver, Miss Fuschgott of Denver, Miss Rose Morris of Butte, Mrs. Kent Smith of Mercer, Mr. Kearn of Denver, J. A. Goldberg of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. Wertheimer, Mr. and Mrs. Weitz, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Simon, Mrs. Fred Simon, Messrs. Henry Kahn and Eugene Kahn.

To Meet Miss Calhoun.
Miss Calhoun was on Thursday the guest of honor at a daintily arranged luncheon, given by the Misses Hanauer. The table decorations were of a patriotic description, red, white and blue being used with an effective setting of green.

Covers were laid for Miss Calhoun, Mrs. J. M. Bidwell, Mrs. William G. Carr, Mrs. George Tuttle, Miss Woodward, Miss Harkness, Miss Lowe.

Tallyho and Supper.
Messrs. W. H. Cunningham and Chester Nason entertained a number of their friends in a truly delightful manner on the evening of the Fourth by giving a tallyho ride, followed by a supper in their bachelor apartment in the Dooly block. The Raymond coach, beautifully decorated in the national colors, and drawn by three span of white horses, was used for the occasion. After a drive around the city the guests were taken to the hosts' cozy parlors, where a tempting Dutch lunch was served. The rooms were lighted by Japanese lanterns, and were decorated with flags and streamers of red, white and blue. After supper was served the remainder of the evening was passed informally with music and conversation. As souvenirs of the evening gaily decorated paper mache horns were given the guests.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. George Rose, Mr. R. C. Chambers, Miss Fred, Miss McGrath, Miss Zane, Miss Geddes, Miss Jacobs, Miss Keith, Miss Sibyl Anderson, Miss Ruth Kirkpatrick, Miss Lowe, the Misses Moore, Messrs. J. T. Goodwin, W. J. Lawrence, Clarence McCormick, F. C. Schramm, Dick Sprague, Sam Porter, S. K. Hooper.

Alta Club Dinner.
Mr. Clarence McCormick was the host on Tuesday evening of a most enjoyable dinner at the Alta club. It was served in the private dining room and the table was exquisitely arranged with American Beauty roses and sweet peas. The large centerpiece was composed entirely of roses, while over the cloth were scattered pink sweet peas and ferns.

There were present Mr. and Mrs. David S. Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Chessman, Mrs. George Scott, Chessman, Mrs. Fred, Mr. Fyler, Mr. Carlton.

Chafing Dish Supper.
An informal little affair of Thursday evening was the chafing dish supper given by Mrs. George Scott, Chessman. The evening was one of pleasant informality throughout.

Mrs. Chessman's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Guendinning, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Murray, the Misses Howat, Mr. Fyler, Miss Fred and Mr. Carlton.

At Dinner.
At the Country club last Sunday evening an enjoyable little dinner was given by Mr. Carlton. His guests were Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Chessman, Miss Murray, Mrs. W. B. Wightman.

Out of Town Visitors.
Among the out of town people who will be in attendance tomorrow evening at the marriage of Miss Rose Goldberg and Edward Silberstein of Denver are Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Silberstein of Duluth, Green of the groom, Miss Rose Morris of Butte, Miss Morse and Miss Fuschgott of Denver; Mrs. Kent Smith of Mercer, Mr. Kearn of Denver and Mr. J. A. Goldberg of Seattle.

In Honor of Miss Worley.
Miss Morley of Tacoma, who is the guest of Mrs. C. L. Rood, was on Tuesday the guest of honor at a luncheon given by Mrs. Kesler. The table was made beautiful with red roses and ferns and the parlors were brightened with the same flowers. Those who enjoyed meeting the guest of honor were Mrs. Ritchie, Mrs. John Cain, Mrs. Sinclair, Miss Sinclair, Mrs. J. H. Bowman, Mrs. G. L. Carpenter, Mrs. Vollmer, Madame Rood, Mrs. McCaughy.

At Pharaoh's Glen.
A jolly party who spent the Fourth at Pharaoh's Glen were the Misses Charlotte Thatcher, Dr. Young, Dora Snow, Margaret Pyper, Edie Pyper, Mary Pyper, Messrs. Levi Simmons, Will Naisbitt, Frank Moyle, Harry Kimball and M. McAllister.

Pleasant Affair.
A very pleasant and enjoyable social was held Thursday at the home of Mrs. A. D. Wellington of McKean's Woman Relief Corps No. 1. Among those present were Mesdames Rudy, Eric Burton, Thomas, Anderson, Furton, Reiser, Hoyt, Edwards, Pease, Hines, Logan, Boyce, Farnsworth, Corser, Papinaw, Dean, Rice, Boynton, Clays, Ladieu, V. T. Clays, Leebeberg, Miss Boyce.

A Quiet Wedding.
A very quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. Elwood Bailey on Sixth East on Wednesday evening last. The bride being Miss Edna Bailey, of Nevada, a niece of Mr. Bailey, and the groom Mr. Arthur Wilson, a civil engineer of Tacoma, Washington.

The marriage ceremony was performed by Dr. Eader. The parlor looked quite nice, decorated with smilax and various flowers. No invitations were issued, as the bride's brother Wallace is just recovering from a long illness. Immediately after the ceremony the entire family left for Ogden, en route for Tacoma, Washington, and Mr. Robert Bailey, Mr. Wallace Bailey and Miss Laura Bailey for their home near Eureka, Nevada.
